THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF 1943

We, the class of 1943, being of sound body (4F) and no mind, do proclaim this to be our last will and testament.

For the duration we make the following collective bequests:

To the Junior Class we bequeath #221 and the pleasure of being guests at the Junior-Senior Banquet next year.

To the Sophomores: Our 1A draft cards.

To the Freshmen: A "place in the sun" at last.

In addition, we wish to make the following individual bequests:

Ellen Abell leaves her horseback riding ability to Bob Hodnott.

Carl Auble bequeaths his quiet disposition to "Wes" Kemp.

Dick Babeock gives up his seat in #221 to future air raid wardens.

Ray Bame leaves his soda-jerking job to some younger jerk.

Wade Barnes wills his liking for blondes to How Hunter.

Warren Bart bequeaths the trumpet solo spotlight to Charles Clark.

Carole Becka wills her windowless seat in #221 to Mr. Claggett for a temporary darkroom.

Ruth Boyd leaves some solitude to Ginny Wheeler.

Clara Belle Bucy leaves her jolly disposition and broad smile to Max Eaken.

Jeannette Burris wills her many beaux to Claribelle Auker.

Ella Mae Colburn leaves Buck Chandler to an open field.

John Culp gives his easy-going gait to Henry Bucy.

Lorna Dean bequeaths the writing of the Prophecy for the 1944 Annual to literary-minded Johnny Burris.

Dorothy Denson leaves her typing job on the Medinamite to Joyce Evans.

Clara Drotos wills her mathematical aptitude to next year's brightest senior math star, Leo Wilcox.

Anna Eich leaves her typing trophies to Miss Hatch to use as an inducement to future typists.

Dick Elder leaves his tenor voice to Basso Bernard Jones.

Ted Elliott bequeaths his job as everybody's handy man to Bennett Wilson.

Jack Fahlman wills a dozen rides in his Plymouth to anybody with a "C" card.

Craig Fenn wills his "way with the girls" to Phil Keiper.

Janice Fenton gives her easel back to Miss Schrock for the duration.

Sally Foote leaves her ever-constant diet to Carmelita Beshire.

Arsula Freidt wills "Chevying" to Charles Higdon if he can find a "Chevy."

Barbara Freidt bequeaths her studiousness to some deserving freshman.

Shirley Garver wills her raven locks to Helen Hallock.

Eugene Gibson wills his thoughtful nature to Don King.

Angie Gorfido passes on his agility to Harry Aylard so that Sam and Mr. Hurd can have another successful season.

Margaret Gorfido leaves the cheering section to sister, Tresa.

Windy Gowe leaves his Honor Roll certificates to Dick Kisner on the condition that Dick keeps his grades up.

Chuck Griesinger leaves an unforgettable example of a little man doing big things to Myron Maple so that he may carry on the sale of war bonds and stamps.

Phyllis Hall leaves a big smile to Miss Phillips.

Louise Haller leaves her misused typing paper to the chairman of the waste paper drive.

Macy Hallock wills his baton to Stanley Bradway.

Ray Hewitt gives his crew haircut to the first underclassman to lose his comb.

THE BLATTER SHEET

MAY 26, 1963

EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGES FILED

Judge Babcock will preside at a hearing on the Fahlman case to be held today at Hendershot Hall. The R. T. Elliott Company has charged J. E. Fahlman with embezzlement involving $3,000,000 of municipal funds. Our civic protector, Mayor Seeley, has been conferring with District Attorney R. L. Westland about the case. The firm of Friedt, Fenn, and Friedt will represent the plaintiff. The defendant's attorneys, Papp, Plants, and Pyecroft, immediately denied the charges and threaten to file a counter suit.

The Sailer vs. Sailer divorce case has been delayed again. The defendant, who has asked for the restoration of her maiden name (Shelton), wishes to present some new evidence.

Chief of Police Huntley and Fire Chief Gibson today condemned the court house building where the case is being heard.

Washington News:

CONGRESSIONAL CORRUPTION

Congress is riding in a smoke cloud this week. Representative Barnes has been fuming again because the Hall Tobacco Bill is up for approval and Representative Smithberger threatens to organize a strong coalition against it. Chairman of the committee Judkins is consulting with Steven Oravec, lobbyist for the tobacco interests, about the passage of the bill.

FINANCIAL STORMS

Wall Street is bullish today as a result of the Seymour investments. Auble, the oil magnate, created a land slide on the market and it's raining oil in Wall Street.

CORNY CRITICISM—by Mugrage

The Misses Ruth Meyers and Betty Boyd have just returned from Vienna, but rumor has it that they will be returning next month. What's up?

Janice Fenton's academy for girls will be visited this afternoon by those advocates of a permanent Women's Army, Mary Jane Kruggle, Lois Kohn, and Shirley Garver. The results may be overwhelming. We'll see.

MOVIES

We predict that Geraldine Johnson's dress designs will go a long way toward making or breaking the "Voschall Follies of 1963."

The new musical review, "Solid Substance," is a delightful blend of slapstick and beauty. The famous comedienne, Marion Huffman, is tops in the wacky scenes while Warren Bart's "Sunlight Sonata" gives the audience a touch of the sublime. The famous Bucey, Holston, Martin trio constitute the "solid" part of the substance—and we mean solid!

VAUDEVILLE

A new variety show, starring Olive Rumph, opens tonight at the Becka Playhouse and the boxoffice reports it is a sell out. In addition to those famous actresses, Steingass and Haller, in the exquisite "Dance of the Winds," the show will feature June Van DeVier of radio fame and Jeannette Swagley and Frances Elkins of Broadway.

FROM THE BOOK SHELVES—

by Bernice Kobb

Macy Hallock's "Twenty Years in a Bathtub" has sold its millionth copy.

Angello Gorfido's "The Manly Art of Tiddly Winks" is the Book-of-the-Month for June.

The public awaits Sally Foote's revision of the Harvard Classics with baited breath, but the Selzer Publishing Company promises that it won't be long now.

THE GREMLINS COME TO MEDINA

As everyone knows, those aerial pixies, the gremlins, first appeared in England from some Shangri-La of their own to harass air-men. "Them"* attached themselves to the R.A.F., and every British pilot soon knew whom to blame if he had unexpected engine trouble, snapped ailerons, suddenly jammed machine guns, or holes in wings or fuselage.

Some time after Pearl Harbor the gremlins first made their appearance among the American Air Forces. By the summer of 1942 "them" were strongly entrenched with us and busy drinking up the contents of gas tanks, ieing wings, climbing into gun barrels to deflect bullets, and making motors sound as if they had suddenly "conked out."

Last December "them" heard of Medina. Many promising lads could be found there who were fine potential victims for their mischievous designs. How much better these future fliers could be harassed and be-deviled if "them" first looked the ground over carefully and became thoroughly acquainted.

The very next afternoon "them" got their chance. The pilot of one of a formation of bombers was out of sorts and defying the rule that gremlins must be treated with respect, he gathered up several in his hand and threw them out the window. To our misfortune "them" landed right in the 1943 Medinian and set up headquarters! Neither pleading nor threats had any effect. The gremlins were here to stay, losing copy, breaking plates, and blurring artists' sketches in their insatiable quest for information about the boys. The staff has brushed and erased in vain, for, as you see, some still remain.

Perhaps you have had moments of uneasiness or have been the victim of an unexplained prank. You have? Ah-h yes, it's "them"—the gremlins!

*When referred to as a species or a group, gremlins prefer to be spoken of as "them." When their wishes are slighted in this matter, "them" are likely to become vindictive.

BULL'S-EYE CLUB

MEDINA SCHOOL

"I'll bet Medina High School never gets over this," said one gremlin to another as he carried away the year's diary.

"It surely is a dirty trick," agreed the other, "but it ought to make interesting reading. Let's open it."

September 1: Football boys go to Camp Crag for training. Everybody's getting himself "polished and shined" in preparation for the day that school starts.

September 8: We are so glad to see everybody back. There are a lot of new faces, too. Poor freshmen! They wander around looking so addled and bewildered.

September 17: Our first assembly: "Dusty" Miller.

Medinamite Staff plans first publication. Promises to be the best in years.

September 18: Football game here. We beat the socks off Fairview! 19-0.

September 21: Student Council gets under way. Hopes to improve assemblies and promote general understanding.

September 24: Saw a preview of Victory Belles Review in assembly. Looking forward to real thing tonight.

September 25: Medina continues to win; took Coventry, 31-0.

September 30: First Medinamite out. It certainly makes good reading.

October 1: "Slim" Williams gave a talk in assembly on the Arctic. It reminded us that winter was almost here.

October 2: Football game. The boys must be inspired. We took Rittman, 39-0.

October 8: Mr. Henry here for assembly. He certainly mixed up the alphabet. Even made us forget our A B C's.

October 9: Football game. Everybody feels a bit puffed up. We walked all over Vermilion, 33-0.

October 13-14-15: Scrap drive! And what a scrap drive! Mud everywhere, but tremendous response.

October 23: Looks as if we're rolling. We beat Amherst on her own field, 6-0.

October 30: What a game! It went down in history! Medina 63, Wellington 0.

November 6: Our hopes for another championship have gone up in smoke. Clearview 20, Medina 6.

November 13: The boys came out from under and played 'till the final gun. Medina 16, Wadsworth 13.

November 19: Junior Religious Assembly.

November 20: Sadie Hawkins Day Dance. Most fun we've had for a long time.

November 25: Dramatic activities off to a fine start with "The Be Ye Thankful Cup." It was a very good Thanksgiving play.

December 2: Gas Rationing. 'Bye, 'bye, pleasure driving!

December 3: Everybody tested his voice in a Community Sing Assembly.

December 4: Basketball season is here! Amherst 36, Medina 21.

December 5: Another game. Medina 40, Spencer 28. The basketball team looks good this year.

December 11: Basketball game. Medina 44, Wellington 22. We're doing fine!

December 12: Basketball. Medina 21, Lodi 19.

December 14: Football banquet. Football wrapped up and put away until next year.

December 18: We again dabbled in holiday dramatics, "Why the Chimes Rang." School closed for the Christmas vacation. In addition, we beat Leroy, 33 to 25.

December 30: We cut North Royalton down, 40 to 29!

January 7: The first Band assembly. Everything is good this year.

January 8: A lot of energy must have been absorbed by the team. They beat New London 37 to 19.

January 12: The boys ran into bad luck. Dropped a game to Rocky River, 29 to 22.

CALENDAR 1943

January 15: We lost to Amherst 49 to 28. Maybe we need some vitamin pills.

January 22: It's all right now. We set Wellington aside, 44 to 22.

January 25: Junior-Senior Banquet. Everyone had a "swell" time. The honorable seniors seemed to enjoy it very much.

January 26: Perhaps it's those late hours. Leroy took us over 37 to 34.

January 29: Medina 39, North Royalton 44. Those gremlins have certainly put the bee on the cagers.

February 1-28: Bond Drive. Goal — $25,000.

February 1: Mrs. Bines gave a talk as an incentive to our Bond Drive.

February 4: Mr. Campbell, naturalist, showed us some movies on wild life.

February 6: Basketball game. Spencer 26, Medina 41. The boys are back in the groove.

February 11: Eighth grade assembly, "A Blot on the Landscape," was heralded by all and turned out to be excellent.

February 12: Lincoln's Birthday. League tournament play-off here. More basketball!

February 14: Valentine Day. It's fun to watch the coyness of the girls and the bashfulness of the boys. Everybody seemed so shy!

February 18: Freshman assembly. Some very informative movies on South America. Made you wish you could move down there.

February 19: Basketball game with Rittman. Medina 34, Rittman 33.

February 22: Washington's Birthday. Nobody here. Less to do than a woodpecker on the Capitol steps.

February 25: Girl Reserve Assembly. There's lots of talent there!

February 23: Ration Book No. 2. We're beginning to wonder if this is a school or a government department: draft examinations, ration books, bond rallies. Where does an alien go to register?

March 1: Mr. J. C. Davis gave a talk on the world in wartime. The band played, and well—as usual.

March 16: P. T. A. Open House enjoyed by a crowd of interested visitors.

March 18: Mr. Melville, a glass blower, talked in assembly. Very, very interesting. We never knew glass blowing took so little hot air!

March 25: Music Program in assembly under the direction of Mr. Wagner.

March 29: Mrs. Clara Polly talked to the girls on "The High School Girl in the War."

March 31: The second every pupil test. Everybody looks either deeply befuddled, or smugly pleased with himself.

April 13: Started our Lenten Service. They seem to have an extra-special significance now.

April 15: Heard fine speech on "Why I Am An American."

April 27: Poor seniors! On the brink of graduation, they struggle manfully through the Scholarship Test.

April 30: More tests!

May 3: Sophomore assembly. Very good!

May 7: The Spring Music Festival. Our musical performers must have reached a peak of excellence!

May 20-21: Senior Play, "Western Union, Please." The seniors strut their dramatic stuff once more. And do themselves proud, too!

May 23: Baccalaureate, a fitting religious wind-up for the year. The chorus was really on the beam.

May 25: Graduation and the austere seniors filed past Medina's reviewing stand for the last time.

May 26: School is out. We leave with a big sigh of relief, but at the same time, we rather look forward to next year, too.

Council To Aid All High Dance

Group Considers School Parties

Keeping his promise to start action soon, Student Council President Todd, started the ball rolling in a meeting on October 19.

First on the agenda was the list of assembly programs up to Nov. 18, submitted by Supt. Spencer and approved by the council.

The P. T. A., in cooperation with the Student Council, will sponsor an all high school dance on November 20 at the high school. Dick Higdon, Jack Schwarz, and Ted Elliott, council members, were selected to work with the P. T. A.

Council members next discussed plans for an all high party every month, if it can be arranged. The council believes the school as a whole should benefit whenever time and space are available for a party. Individual class parties are out as far as school is concerned.

Assembly Committee Is Appointed

The student body may look forward to enjoyable Thanksgiving and Christmas assembly programs, for a faculty committee consisting of Miss Mann as chairman, Miss Crawford, Mr. Kelsner, and Mr. Wagner has been appointed to plan special entertainment. Although the committee has not as yet made any specific plans, dramatics and music will probably be highlights of the programs.

Spanish Club Is Organized

Tuesday evening, October 6, the second year Spanish students met in the music room to form a Spanish club. All future meetings will be held on the last Monday of each month.

Any second year Spanish student who attends two of the first three meetings is eligible for membership. First year classes may elect representatives to report on the activities of the club.

The purposes of the Spanish club are to create enthusiasm and interest in Spanish speaking countries, to further the students' fluency in Spanish conversation, and to provide educational entertainment. In addition, the club hopes to have speakers from time to time, a movie on Latin America, and a program in observation of Pan-American Day.

Officers were elected at the opening meeting. They are Jane DeGroat, president; Virginia Higgins, vice president; Joyce Evans, secretary; and Jim Spencer, treasurer.

Rummage Sale Nets Profit

On October 3 the Parent-Teachers' Association held a rummage sale in the Clark building on North Court Street. Proceeds of the sale yielded a profit of fifty-one dollars.

STUDENTS PUT SCRAP DRIVE OVER

That the whirlwind campaign of the Juniors and Seniors to collect scrap was an unqualified success is proved by the huge pile of scrap heaped behind the high school building. Official figures are not yet available, but unofficial estimates place the amount collected between 35 to 50 tons.

designing, and metal work.

Students will recall the assembly program last year put on by the art classes during which Richard Hazen experimented with plastic wood which is made pliable and flexible because of the special way in which it is cut.

Miss Shrock's plans for her art classes this semester include many experiments in the different uses of wood, such as corner carving and the making of toys, model villages, and trays.

Miss Sue Keefe of Catbury Drive will exchange vows with Donald Todd, the eminent London correspondent, at the Little Church around the Corner, early this evening. Rev. Roland Martin, D.D., will read the double ring ceremony. The out-of-town guests for the occasion include the correspondent's secretarial staff, Miss Dorothy Denson, Miss Anna Eich, Miss Glendora Mischler, and Miss Dorothy Oleksa, who flew here from London. Her plane was piloted by Miss Ella Mae Colburn. James Spencer, the noted professor of history from Vassar is expected also.

SPORTS—by "Will" (Stern) Sperry

Tuesday at 9:00 p. m. the most famous athletes of the past fifteen years are invited by the National Sports Committee to meet at the Athletic Club to discuss the athletic standards of the country.

Among those attending will be James ("Windy") Gowe, famous pinball star, who is now campaigning for the presidency of the W. C. T. U.

Rober ("Cue Ball") Riegger, the champion "slop shot" of the United States, and Dick Wagner who will demonstrate that skill means nothing in a pool room.

The list also includes Albert Noah, well-known boxing authority, "Big Jim" Mathewson, the football 'pro', Medley and Johnson, the last Olympic champions, and "Hercules" Hewitt, who just came up from the "land down under."

Ellen Abell took all the honors with her stable of thoroughbreds at the Horse Show at the Gardens last night. Authorities expect her blue ribbons winners to repeat the performance again tonight.

Carole Roshon, the tennis queen, has finally won the International Women's Championship title. We wish her luck.

Auto races at the Speedway open Saturday, Dick Elder, general manager of the track, announced today. Bob ("Winky") Winkler, famous speed-driver, is expected to try out a new racer for the opening.

"WESTERN UNION, PLEASE"

On May 21, 1943, the Senior Class presented a three-act comedy, written by Albert Hockett and Frances Goodrich, entitled "Western Union, Please."

STORY OF THE PLAY

The story tells of Danny Daley, a droll dreamer with a passion for uniforms, and a lasting belief that he is going to run a shoestring into a million, if he can ever get the right shoestring.

Years ago his wife gave him ten cents to go out and buy a loaf of bread and has never seen him since. His daughter, Alice, is sure he is alive and will come home with a fortune. But Jennie, his wife, has to sell their house, and to do it, she has Danny declared legally dead. Danny's Lodge is giving him a big Memorial service when a telegram arrives, saying that he is flying home to them. Alice, ecstatic, rushes to meet him at the airport. Jennie is trying to call off the services, when in walks Danny in a Western Union uniform.

He is horrified when he learns that she has murdered him in cold blood, but he accepts the situation, tells her he will leave, and he sets off to his own funeral.

However, before he goes, Danny tries to straighten out his wife's tangled realty affairs and to re-route his romantic daughter into the arms of the right boy. Danny is off to re-wed his "widow" as the last curtain falls.

ELEANOR GARNETT

Class of 1944

Born: January 29, 1925

Died: February 9, 1943

BASKETBALL: 1942-'43

Medina High School's basketball season ended with a record of 11 wins and 8 losses. Two regulars were lost at mid-year, and it was necessary to build up a new team for the second semester. Medina won its first six games. Included in the wins were victories against its league rivals, New London and Wellington.

The league is divided into a northern and southern half. Medina won the southern championship and Clearview, the northern. In the play-off, Clearview defeated Medina.

Five of eight letter men will be lost by graduation: Barnes, Bame, Gorfido, Elliott, and Seeley. With Dick Higdon and Jerry Jameyson to build around, Medina can look forward to an interesting season next year.

FOOTBALL REPORT

After a summer of hard work intended to toughen them for a strenuous football season, some forty boys spent a week at Camp Crag for intensive training. The ground work was laid here for the most successful football season in the history of Medina High School. The opening game with Fairview resulted in a 19 to 0 victory for Medina and started the team on a seven-game winning streak. The only defeat of the season was the game with Clearview. This event attracted state-wide interest because neither team had lost a game and Medina had not been scored on.

The season's climax occurred in the Wadsworth game in which Medina defeated Wadsworth in the last thirty seconds of play. The game, played in a snow-storm, was a thriller from beginning to end. Medina scored 246 points to their opponents 32. Jim Johnson, speedy backfield man, received honorable mention in several Ohio newspapers for his brilliant playing. As a grand finale to the season two-hundred boys and men from Medina met for a banquet, saw the presentation of letters, and heard Coach "Bo" McMillan, Indiana's popular football coach.

CLASS WILL

Marianne Steingass bequeaths her ability to go with the "one and only" in the crowd to Alice Cole.

Jeanette Swagley wills all of her out-of-school fellows to Faith Flynn.

Vernon Tilton bequeaths a little of his excess height to Carl Abell on condition that Carl will join Ringling Brothers.

Donnie Todd wills the jinx that lost him four girls in a row to his "friends" to Reade Shook.

Pauline Uren wills the popularity that saw her escorted to football games all fall by a gang of fellows to Helen Midgley.

June Van Devier gives her ability to stay thin to Margaret Stefan.

Ray Voschall wills his devotion to the freshman class to Maynard Johnson.

Dick Wagner leaves his cue stick to Loren Hadlock.

Bob Westland wills his talent for making "cute" remarks and for getting laughs to Mr. Coroneos.

Bob Winkler leaves his sweet disposition to anyone that has used up his last sugar ration coupon.

It is our belief that the above bequests are made in accordance with the laws of this state and county and in witness whereof we hereunto set our hand and seal on this third day of January in the year of our Lord (A. D.) one-thousand nine hundred and forty-three.

One Perfect Rose

A single flow'r he sent me, since we met.
All tenderly his messenger he chose;
Deephearted, pure, with scented dew
still wet—
One perfect rose.

I knew the language of the floweret;
"My fragile leaves," it said, "his heart inclose."
Love long has taken for his amulet
One perfect rose.

Why is it no one ever sent me yet
One perfect limousine, do you suppose?
Oh no, it's always just my luck to get
One perfect rose.
—Dorothy Parker

Consider Patriot Elmer Jorrow;
He says he'll buy a bond tomorrow.
Why, victory never will be won
By putting it off from Sun. to Mon.

The Rich Man

The rich man has his motor-car,
His country and his town estate.
He smokes a fifty-cent cigar
And jeers at Fate.

He frivols through the livelong day,
He knows not poverty, her pinch.
His lot seems light, his heart seems gay;
He has a cinch.

Yet though my lamp burns low and dim,
Though I must slave for livelihood—
Think you that I would change with him?
You bet I would.
